1/8 (Sun. 13:00-17:00)	2/5 (Sun. 13:00-17:00)

Note: This is a flipped learning course. In sessions 2-5, lectures and related tasks are scheduled for the morning from 10:00-12:00. The face-to-face (Zoom) component of these sessions will begin after lunch (13:00-5:00). Note that for Session 1, the face-to-face component is from 10:00-5:00. An additional online component equivalent to 6 hours will be provided through embedded academic writing support.

Course Description

This course provides an opportunity for student-teachers to explore key issues in teaching and learning English. It has three main goals. The first goal is for our classroom community to develop a shared terminology (i.e., vocabulary) for talking about teaching. Participants will gain familiarity with well-known educational approaches such as Cooperative and Collaborative Learning, Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL), Active Learning and Task-based Learning as well as key concepts such as Learner Autonomy. The second goal is to promote reflective teaching practices. Through online assignments and class discussions, participants will have opportunities to relate the course content to their own teaching experiences. The third goal of the course is to develop a foundation for further learning in the MA Program. The main course assignment called Teaching Issues Paper provides student-teachers with an opportunity to identify issues arising from their reflections that they wish to explore further in the program. Other important areas of focus in the course that will be of use throughout the program are presentations, library research skills, especially referencing and citation practices, educational technology, and most importantly, the formation of a supportive professional learning community.

Assignments and Assessment

- Participation & Collaboration (15%)
- Jigsaw Reading Presentations (25%)
- Pre-class assignments (30%)
- Teaching Issues Paper (TIP) (30%)

Note: Points will be deducted for each day an assignment is late.

Course Objectives

1. Teaching Issues Paper (TIP)

Class Participants will be able to:

- Develop a detailed description of their teaching contexts.
- Describe key pedagogical issues in their contexts that they would like to explore further in the MA Program.
- Identify relevant literature that they can use as resources to explore their teaching issues further.
- Accurately use APA citation and referencing practices.

2. Jigsaw Chapter Presentations

Class Participants will be able to:

- Summarize key points from a chapter about a teaching issue/area of their choice.
- Illustrate key points with concrete examples from their own teaching contexts or learning experiences.
- Formulate conclusions about the chapter and discuss key implications for their own teaching/learning.
- Deliver an effective presentation that is appropriate in its use of visuals, and language.

3. Online and in-class work

Class Participants will be able to:

- Describe key principles of different approaches (e.g., TBLT, CLIL, Four Strands etc.) in their own words using concrete examples to illustrate them.
- Analyze classroom activities and assess the extent to which different classroom practices (e.g., activities) incorporate various pedagogical principles.
- Assess the extent to which different pedagogical principles are employed in their own teaching contexts and suggest ways classroom practices can be adapted or modified.
- Identify ways classroom practices can be adapted or modified for their teaching contexts.

- Develop context-appropriate course objectives and identify practices that can be used to achieve them.
- Collaborate with classmates to enhance the learning of others and build a supportive professional community.
- Submit assignments and access course documents and other educational resources through Google Classroom.
